plaintiff Michael Sean Speight, and defendant Amanda Kaelblein.

Ms. Westbrook found no good cause (No abuse or neglect on minor child V.S.. No personal issues, substance abuse issues, or any other issues in plaintiffs life) why the plaintiff should not be an active parent in V.S. life. (JUDGE McSweeney stated if the federal court needed the clinicians report they could acquire it, though the plaintiff or defendant do not have access to it.)

- b. Judge McSweeney on September 3, 2024 placed a visitation order for the plaintiff to see V.S. , every Saturday from 12pm to 3pm. (see exhibit 1)

The defendant Amanda Kaelblein Failed to show for the visitation order. (see exhibit 2 Officer Barranco filed a report that the defendant failed to show for visitation with V.S. in contempt complaint filed On September 10, 2024 in Woburn Probate Court)

d. Amanda Kaelblein has failed to answer this complaint in over 130 days, This court has failed to place a default judgment against her. With her still causing ongoing irreparable emotional/mental harm to the plaintiff and minor child V.S

MEMORANDUM OF LAW TO SUPPORT MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

In Rosa v. City of Seaside, 675 F. Supp. 2d 1006 (N.D. Cal. 2009) “ the court took judicial notice of state administrative regulations relevant to the case.”

There are three Massachusetts employees verifying these facts.

In United states v. Ritchie, 342 F.3d 903(9th Cir. 2003) “the court took judicial notice of public records and government documents available online”

In the United States v. Wilson, 631 F.2d 118 (9th Cir. 1980) the appellate court found no abuse of discretion where the district court took judicial notice of facts.

This Court is presenting facts that this defendant is consistently causing harm to the plaintiff and minor child V.S.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff requested this court to take judicial notice on this defendant.
